LANCASTER.

Mr. Jesse Doty left Wednesday night for Louisville to be treated by a specialist.

The Lyceum Company have arranged six standard attractions for the winter season.

The protracted meeting at Fairview, five miles East of here, has closed with 35 accessions to the Christian church.

Mrs. W. O. Bradley has gone to Lexington to join her daughter, Miss Christine, who is under treatment at the St. Joseph Infirmary.

Messrs. Ed and Napo Price bought two calves from W. S. Ferguson at 40c. Fox & Lawson bought of Elkin & Myers 97 hogs at 64c.

Several of the county schools are still closed on account of scarlet fever and other sickness, and the delay is unfortunate for both pupils and teachers. Judge J. C. Hemphill sold a helper to Jim Parks at 34c. Elkin & Myers bought of Fred Stone a fine helper at 34c and two helpers of John Pound at 34c.

A number of the women from the Herring school-house auxiliary have been invited to the open session of the W. C. T. U. Saturday, and a good attendance is expected.

The Presbyterian membership will observe next Sunday morning as "Rally Day," and not only all the pupils and teachers, but the parents are cordially invited and expected to be present on this occasion.

A Sunday School rally was held Monday at the Presbyterian church, in which Mr. James N. Denny was present as county president, and several other interested workers took an active part in the organization.

The city marshal, S. D. Rothwell, is said to be recovering from his fall at the recent fire and will soon be able to resume his official duties. In the meantime Matt Siler is acting as marshal and J. Mort Rothwell as tax collector.

The geological surveys have just completed their work in Lower Garrard and now the people of the Bryansville section are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the railroad corps of engineers, locating the line of the Louisville Southern.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have sent the picture of their late beloved president, Mrs. Margaret Gill, to Cincinnati to have an enlarged copy made and will hang it in their hall, along with that of Miss Frances Willard.

The young people's missionary society of the Presbyterian church will give a "silver tea" on the evening of Oct. 3rd from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. There will be served free of charge, but a voluntary offering of a silver coin is expected for the benefit of missions.

The drilling for water continues and a depth of over 700 feet has now been reached. Another accident in the way of breaking a drill has occurred and a workman was again compelled to go to Cincinnati to repair the damage. The boring is still through solid limestone, with no appearance of other formations.

The Robinson monument just erected in the Lancaster Cemetery is one of the handsomest in this section of Kentucky. It is of fine grain light Barre granite, richly decorated with carving executed in the best style. The columns are highly polished, surmounted by a statue of Hope larger than life-size, finished in the most effective work of the true artist. It is the largest and most massive family memorial in Lancaster's beautiful city of the dead. The design and execution were the work of Adams & Son, of Lexington, the same firm that erected the Confederate monument at Harrodsburg last week.

The speaking occurred too late Monday afternoon to be reported for Tuesday's issue, but one of the largest crowds that has been here for a year was present to hear Congressman Gilbert, Judge Sautley, Hon. Robt. Harding and Con W. Bell. Judge Sautley delivered an eloquent address of two hours in which he scored the action of the committee and expressed a wish that the selection of nominees be left to a primary. The judge's friends consider his speech the finest he has made during the campaign and were out en masse to rally to his support. Both Judge Sautley and Mr. Harding have made appointments to speak throughout the county, the judge to speak Friday afternoon at Paint Lick and Saturday afternoon at Bryansville.

Mrs. Leander Davidson is at home from a visit to her daughter at Richmond. Miss Wagner, of Columbus, O., is the guest of the Misses Gill. Misses Scott and Hughes, of Nicholasville, are guests of Miss Lizzie Hudson. Mrs. Gaines and son, of Lexington, are visiting relatives here. Misses Martha and Helen Gill left Tuesday night for school at Glendale, Ohio. Miss Albert Anderson has returned from a visit to Lexington. Mrs. W. R. Romans and daughter are at home from a visit to Richmond. Mrs. St. Clair has returned to New Orleans after spending the summer in this vicinity. Mrs. Margaret Jones and daughter, of Harrodsburg, are visiting Mrs. Bob McRoberts. Miss Blanche Tuggle has returned to Barboursville. Mrs. J. C. Hemphill leaves soon to attend the Cincinnati fall festival. W. M. Bogle has returned to Owensboro. R. H. Batson is back from Chicago. Mrs. Corale Clay, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. D. L. Walker. Mrs. Louis Landrum and the Misses Marksbury are in Cincinnati.

Clarence Coleman Sees Teddy.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—Dear INTERIOR: As I have been silent for several weeks past, I beg to again intrude on your valuable space for just a few lines from this point. I came up to the Ohio city Friday to take in a few days of the Fall Festival, which opened Monday and will continue until Saturday. The city is now in her glory, richly attired in bunting and flags of all colors and descriptions. Both business houses and residences are decorated. Yesterday was "President's Day" and a royal welcome he received. I saw the crowd and the parade. Thought I had seen great crowds before, but former gatherings glimmer into insignificance when compared to that which greeted Teddy, Waterson's "broncho buster" yesterday. Fully half a million people were on the streets. True that is a lot of people. Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Race, Walnut, Vine and other thoroughfares for miles and miles were simply one gigantic phalanx of human beings, besides every window full, during the parade. The president could never have hoped for a warmer reception or a more cordial greeting than that paid him at Queen City. It seemed as if Ohio and Indiana had turned out en masse to greet him. As Comrade J. B. Stears, of the Jessamine Journal, said: "We democrats can never hope to elect another president after this." He said this laughingly of course. The president's reception and speechmaking here was not a political affair, but simply a guest of Cincinnati and of the Fall Festival. He came on an invitation extended him by the Business Men's Club of Cincinnati, and directors of C. F. P., regardless of party. I had never seen a president and was doubly anxious to see one and see what they looked like. I have seen the Rough Rider now and have heard him speak.

This year's festival is a grand success and the attendance will be much larger than of any previous meetings. The Midway with all its Oriental shows and side shows is here and reaping a harvest as usual.

I met Mr. J. B. Stears, of the Jessamine Journal, on the train coming to the city, and we took in the city together. I am under obligations to him for many favors bestowed. Among the many was a press pass which took us into every show on the grounds.

As it will soon be train time, will ring off for the present. I return to Burnside today. With best wishes to the I. J. and its myriad of readers, I am Very Respectfully,

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

MATRIMONIAL.

George Hunt and Miss Mary Jones were made one at the court-house by Judge Bailey Wednesday.

Over 100 wedding guests were suffocated or burned to death as the result of a fire and panic in Russia.

After 46 years of married life, Mrs. Nancy Bishop sued for divorce from George W. Bishop at Cincinnati.

Ollie Murphry, son of William Murphry, and Miss Bessie Martin, eldest daughter of Mr. Ben P. Martin, both of Rowland, eloped to Jellico Wednesday and were made one. The bride is an exceedingly pretty and popular young lady and Mr. Murphry is to be congratulated on winning such a prize. The groom is in the employ of the L. & N. and is a fine young man.

Samuel J. Tatem and Miss Jennie Payne, both of Crab Orchard, were married in Cincinnati Monday. The two have been lovers for some 10 years and the marriage is no surprise to their friends. The bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Payne and is a most excellent young woman. She is related to the Severances, of this place, and has been a frequent visitor to them. Mr. Tatem is a clever young business man of his town, who numbers his friends by the thousands. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its heartiest congratulations to the happy pair and wishes them the best of everything going.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' of my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am telling the truth too." 25c and 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

H. H. HENNINGER

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING, of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 18th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Congress,

G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby.

A GENERAL conference of Quakers is to be held in Indianapolis next month. That body proposes to take on new life and to provide itself with some of the modern agencies for zealous work. Plans for religious extension for education and other movements are underway. The public generally will be glad of this revival of Quakerism. These people are an intelligent, refined, peace-loving sect, whose influence has been an advantage to this country as well as to England. One may be indifferent to their tenets, but can not ignore the worth of the serene spirits which is pre-eminently theirs. When we were a boy, as a certain writer is given to saying in his articles, we lived in a community of Quakers in Virginia and many's the time have we attended their peculiar services. They never speak till the spirit moves them and they sit quietly till it does. Those we knew were exceedingly pious and honest and made splendid citizens. They used "thee" and "thou" for "you" and their dress as easily distinguished them as their conversation. The boys used to think the Quakers' meeting house haunted, and many hair raising stories of things seen and heard there kept them in constant fear of passing the building after night fall. All the Quakers who worshipped there are dead now and sleep in the graveyard hard by; the old church is in ruins, but those who were thrown with them can never forget their christian lives and good examples, while wishing there were more such people in the world.

The shrewd and resourceful men who are at the head of the great industrial combinations entertain no apprehensions as to the future of the trusts, so long as the American people can be deluded into the belief that an amendment of the constitution is all that is necessary to curb the power of the trusts. Of course, they will profess to be alarmed and indignant at the president's philosophical and not unfriendly discussion of the subject on the stump and in his message to congress, but that is only part of the game. Such tactics are as old as the hills. They know that it will take many years, if at all, to secure the amendment and in the meantime they will stick their fangs deeper and deeper into the body politic.

The plan to bore a tunnel seven miles long, through the Sierra Nevada mountains at a cost of $14,000,000 in order to shorten by 12 hours the trip over the Central Pacific, is an illustration of the immense resources of our great corporations and the wonderful wealth of our country as a whole. Were it a task proposed by the government, all sorts of complications would follow the introduction of the proposal into the realm of political discussion, but a board of directors intrusted with power by thousands of stockholders, can order it done and the work is at once under way.

VERY little interest is being manifested in Hon. George G. Gilbert's race for Congress in this section. In fact the race for the nomination for circuit judge in this district has almost entirely overshadowed it. Democrats should not lose sight of the Congressional race, which is a most important one. It is very necessary that Mr. Gilbert be returned to Congress, where he has so clearly proven his fitness to represent the people of the Eighth district. Mr. Sumrall, his opponent, has no chance to defeat Mr. Gilbert if the democrats do their duty, but they must not sleep at this important period.

W. S. TAYLOR has tendered his services as republican campaign orator in Ohio with the proviso that he be protected from arrest by the Kentucky authorities. Chairman Dick apparently is not anxious for Taylor's aid and has not answered his letter. The democrats of this State want Taylor for just one talk and will give him a snug sum for it. A hanging would follow in 60 or 90 days.

The legal profession is being overrun and the lawyers are sending up a cry of distress. In 1891 there were 58 law schools in the United States, with 6,073 students. Now there are 120 schools and 14,000 students.

EDITOR GAINES, of the Elkton Progress, has a 12-pound boy and he is so happy he can hardly contain himself. The youngster has been named for his father.

TO DEMOCRATS.

In pursuance to the call of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Second Railroad Commissioners District of Kentucky the Democrats of Lincoln county are hereby notified to meet in mass convention in their respective voting precincts Saturday, September 27th at 2 o'clock p. m., and select a representative to the county convention to be held at the court house on the 29th day of September, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the district convention to be held in Frankfort on the 1st day of Oct. 1902, to nominate a candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

R. C. WARREN, Chairman.

The terrible announcement is made that President Schwab's salary has been cut to $250,000 a year. First thing we know he will join the strikers. —Lexington Democrat.

Former Gov. Boies issued his letter accepting the democratic nomination in the Third Iowa district. The letter is devoted entirely to the trusts, and insists on a tariff for revenue only, as a cure for the trusts.

Secretary of War Root delivered a speech on the Philippines before the Illinois republican clubs at Peoria. The address was in the nature of a reply to the "detraction" on the administration's policy toward the islands.

President Roosevelt's statement at Cincinnati that anthracite coal is on the free list is not borne out by a ruling of the New York board of appraisers, which holds a duty tax of 67 cents a ton on all coal containing less than 92 per cent of fixed carbon.

Hon. Samuel E. Jones has been declared the democratic nominee for circuit judge in the 10th judicial district, there being no opposition to his candidacy for re-election. A primary to nominate a candidate for Commonwealth's attorney will be held on Oct. 4.

John G. Carlisle was elected a Tammany delegate to the State convention. Chief Murphy expressed great delight at Mr. Carlisle's election. Mr. Carlisle said that he had not been officially notified of his election, but he would consider what was the right thing to do.

Goy, Taft, in his address in response to his recent welcome in Manila, said in reference to the friars' question that Pope Leo had promised to reorganize the church in the islands, recall the friars, send priests other than Spaniards to the islands and ultimately to have solely a native priesthood.

Those "democratic" papers now overloading and overworking their head lines with "Bryanism Beaten," "Free Coinage Dead," etc., are the same delectable "democratic" organs that brought about the election of McKinley '96. And nobody has forgotten, is forgetting, or will forget this indisputable fact.—Glasgow Times.

Representative Griggs, chairman of the democratic Congressional campaign committee, in an interview declared: "President Roosevelt is our strongest speaker in the field." He believes the president's attack on the trusts will attract attention to the fact that the democratic party is the only one ready for action against these combines.

There were a great many errors in our paper last week, but you will be considerate toward us, when we say the office is possessed of devils. We have three new ones about as perfect as they usually are when they arrive from devildom, and you know what three such imps can play, especially in a printing office. Some of the lithographs of Turner were shot to pieces on the walls where they had been put up.

He is 130 years of age and remembers with vivid distinction the war of 1812. He has in his possession a piece of money given him by Marquis De Lafayette while he was attending the distinguished Frenchman during his stay at a hospital where the Mercer National Bank is now situated.

THERE is a general desire on the part of his Lincoln county friends for Judge M. C. Sautley to speak here next county court day. Many people came to town last court under the impression that the judge would address his fellow democrats and went home disappointed. There is no real need of a speech from our distinguished townsman, for the boys in old Lincoln are for him to a unit, but they want to hear him and they use the INTERIOR JOURNAL as a mouthpiece to ask him to "give 'em a talk."

HORRIBLE —If the verdict of the coroner's jury, which we publish below, is a true one, and we suppose it is, Mrs. David Crutchfield is not only a very unnatural mother but is guilty of a most horrible crime. It is claimed that she brought about the death of her child and the charge of murder has been registered against her. The baby was born at Rowland Tuesday morning and a short while later its cries attracted attention to an outhouse where the little thing was found under the floor with its head badly crushed. Medical aid was at once summoned but the injuries it had received were too severe for it to overcome and its little light went out a few hours later. The mother was not in condition to be questioned at the inquest, but it is generally supposed that she destroyed her offspring to hide her shame, as she had been married only a few weeks.

Following is the verdict of the coroner's jury:

We, the jury, agree and find that the infant born to Mrs. Alice Crutchfield on Sept. 23, 1902, came to its death by being crushed to death or by some other violent means on the premises of Rebecca Crutchfield by its mother. There was no one present at the time and that Mrs. Alice Crutchfield is responsible for its death.

Power of Printer's Ink.

There was a clothing dealer who did not believe in newspaper advertising, but he does now. The advertising solicitor told him that two lines in the most obscure place in his paper would be read by nearly everybody in that city. "Prove it," said the merchant.

"Say anything about me you want to in two lines." The solicitor put in two lines saying the merchant wanted to buy 100 cats and 200 dogs. The ad. was sandwiched between some medicine liners on the inside page. That night 17 boys and three girls brought in dogs, and the next morning and until late at night his store was crowded with persons with dogs and cats to sell. One time there was such a jam in his store that he had to close the front door and let those in the store go out by the rear door. Early next morning the merchant rushed to the newspaper office and closed a contract for a year's advertising. Already he has had such an increase in business that a new room will be added to his store.—Ex.

21 YEARS A DYSPEPTIC.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief, recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

It was a one-minute, ten-cents surgical operation—merely the pricking with a needle of a little bruise on the calf of the President's left leg—and 10,000 columns of newspaper space are taken in telling and retelling of it. On its face the matter is a trivial one, but carries disappointment to millions of expectant people throughout the Middle West.—Louisville Times.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. At the meeting of the Faith Curleis in Jersey City, a Philadelphia woman testified that by means of faith and prayer she had been cured of "being an actress." There have been times when the wild beasts have been more merciful than human beings, and spared the woman cast to them in the arena. It is astonishing how little sympathy women have for women. In the home the mistress sees the maid with the signs of suffering, she recognizes so well, but she does not lighten the sick girl's load by a touch of her finger. In the store the foreman sees the pallor and exhaustion which mark womanly weakness, but allows nothing for them. It is work or quit.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, by curing the womanly diseases which undermine the health and sap the strength. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansevoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y. "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, then I began taking your medicine. After taking the first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one vial of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

The health authorities of Bowling Green removed Luther R. Porter, his wife and child, to Warren county pesthouse by force. The removal was made after a message had been received that Judge Barker had dissolved the temporary injunction granted by Judge Drake, of Warren county. In his decision Judge Barker sustained the right of the Board of Health to move to pesthouses persons afflicted with smallpox, stating in his opinion that it was a hardship which would have to be endured for the good of the community.

There is no law against the holding of party primaries on the day of the regular election, but it is a growing custom that would be more honored in the breach than the observance.
